Have you wondered whether our neighborhood or surrounding areas have gang activity? Are you concerned about negative influences on children? Have you ever thought, “What can I do to help keep a child stay from joining a gang?”

The Forest Hill and Woodland Heights Neighborhood Associations will host a Gang Awareness Training Program for residents on Thursday, February 25, 2010. The Wrong Family: Virginia Fights Back Against Gangs, an award winning documentary about gang activity in Virginia, will be featured, followed by a presentation on local gang activity by the Richmond Police Department and the Virginia Office of the Attorney General.
