<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The next step is recruiting block captains and a door-to-door campaign to sign up neighbors. 	Friends of Forest Hill Park Liaison (Monica Rumsey, Co-President): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They are still working on resolution of the historic park sign 	Robley Jones proposed a new ad hoc Park Improvement Committee, which investigates park renovations, starting with the lake project, with an objective of increasing membership by appealing to those who use the park, and of coordinating efforts with the surrounding associations. He also proposed a door-to-door campaign to simultaneously circulate a petition to council to move forward with the lake project and solicit association membership. In addition, flyers and information would be made available at the summer concerts. In response, John Meakim offered to give an update on the lake renovations, as he has attended all the FFHP meetings and met with park supervisor JR Pope.	NEW/OTHER BUSINESS	OLD BUSINESS	Richmond Police Dept Lt. Scott Booth reminded the association that if anyone sees anything suspicious, to call it in to the non-emergency police number, as this has resulted in preventing crimes. Other issues raised to Lt. Booth were speeding on Forest Hill Avenue, and patrolling in the park, especially in the deeper sections of the park. Lt. Booth advised that some motorcycle officers were in training for just that purpose.	MEETING ADJOURNED Approximately p.m.
